The Department of PSYCHOLOGY at the UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA invites applications for an Assistant Professor in BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS. The position is a full-time, nine-month, tenure-accruing position beginning August 2018. We invite applications from individuals working in any area of basic or applied behavior analysis. Teaching interests also are open, although we are especially interested in candidates with expertise in teaching theoretical seminars and/or verbal behavior. Requirements for this position include a PhD, an independent research program, and capacity to compete for external funding. We prefer candidates who have obtained certification as a Board Certified Behavior Analyst or are eligible for certification. Applicants also are expected to demonstrate a commitment to excellence in teaching and mentoring of a diverse student population at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience, and includes a full benefits package.

For full consideration, applications must be submitted online at http://explore.jobs.ufl.edu/cw/en-us/job/504665/assistant-professor-behavioral-psychology and must include:

a) Cover letter
b) Curriculum vitae
c) Statement of research interests/plans
d) Statement of teaching interests/philosophy
e) Statement on a commitment to diversity in research, teaching, and mentoring
f) Up to three reprints or pre-prints, and
g) The names and email address for three references must be provided on the application. An email will be sent automatically to your references, requesting them to upload their letters.

Visit our website (http://www.psych.ufl.edu) for more information about the department. Review of applications will begin November 1, 2017, and continue until the position is filled. All candidates for employment are subject to a pre-employment screening which includes a review of criminal records and reference checks. The final candidate will be required to provide an official transcript to the hiring department upon hire. A transcript will not be considered “official” if a designation of “Issued to Student” is visible. Degrees earned from an educational institution outside of the United States require evaluation by a professional credentialing service provider approved by the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), which can be found at http://www.naces.org/.

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Institution dedicated to building a broadly diverse and inclusive faculty and staff. Minorities, women, and individuals from other under-represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. The selection process will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Florida’s Government in the Sunshine and Public Records Laws. If an accommodation due to disability is needed to apply for this position, please call (352) 392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at (800) 955-8771 (TDD).
