IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fundraiser

Come out to the Gelato Company on Thursday, September 24th for our first fundraising opportunity. Show up anytime between 6pm-8pm to receive 1 fundraising point. If you purchase a drink and any entrée, you get a free small gelato; that's dinner, drink, and a dessert for under $10!

Upcoming Social

Psychology Club is having a Movie Night this Friday, September 25th from 5:30-8pm! We're planning on showing "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," although we will have other options of movies to show.

Don't Forget:

- Blankets
- Pillows

And we'll provide the snacks!

Philanthropy

The psychology club will be participating in the "Reach Out and Read" program sponsored by UF Pediatrics primary care! A program designed to promote literacy in children from 6 months to 5 years old, "Read Out and Read" is accepting gently used books; books with brightly colored pictures and interesting stories are ideal.

Please bring in any gently used books to the next general meeting on Wednesday, September 23! You will also get a philanthropy point.

If you have any questions, contact Marcela Miceli @ Miceli23@ufl.edu

Membership Information

Psychology Club and Psi Chi are two different organizations that have chosen to come together for the mutual benefit of each other. Both clubs exist primarily for psychology majors at the University of Florida, although membership is open to all students. Psi Chi is the honors club for Psychology majors at the University of Florida and is affiliated with the national organization Psi Chi. Membership requirements are explained fully in the Member Handbook, but some important details are as follows:

- $25.00 a semester or
- $40.00 a year
(plus a one-time payment of $35.00 if joining Psi Chi, in addition to regular dues)

Basic Membership requires only the paying of dues.

Active Membership requires, in addition to dues, participation in at least one of each of the following per semester: a fundraising event, a philanthropy event, and a social event.

Exemplary Membership requires active membership plus participation in most Club activities and/or other service such as volunteering for committee work and special projects.

Psi Chi Membership requires a 3.5 GPA in psychology and a 3.2 overall GPA. Three semesters of college; one semester at UF. Three psychology classes. Additional requirements can be found in the Member Handbook or online at <http://www.psichi.org/about/becomember.asp>.

- Dues include a t-shirt (make sure you keep your receipt)
- Pay in cash or check; make checks payable to "Psychology Club"
- Deadline to pay dues: 3rd Club Meeting (October 7th)

ONE LESS CAR CHALLENGE!

- For One Less Car, you go to the website *<https://uf.greenride.com/en-US/>* this should lead you to the One Less Car challenge that is affiliated with UF. You can also find it by going to the UF website (www.ufl.edu) and entering "One Less Car" into the search portion. Look for the One Less Car entry by *www.sustainable.ufl.edu/onelesscar/*. Then click where it says "Take the One Less Car Challenge"* *Here, you create an account. When you are in the survey portion of creating your account and it wants you to put information on how you heard about the program, please enter someone in the group already. Please enter the full name, and if you didn't have anyone that recommended you please put, Stefanie Upshaw. (the captain)
- When you have an account and are logged in, our group name is Psychology Club/Psi Chi and our logo is the same one for the club. Please join the team. From here you can enter all of your alternative transportation and dates by clicking on "view trips". It logs the information according to your previously recorded information that you designated when you signed up. If you have any questions, please contact Stefanie Upshaw at supshaw@ufl.edu with the subject as "One Less Car Help".
Enjoy and have fun!!
